Successful grant

Paul Fletcher MP, Federal Member for Bradfield, Minister for Families and Social Services advised CCL has been successful in the application for the Volunteers Grant.

Alkira Lodge Project

Lynne Sadd reports that the project is nearing completion - 2 x coverlet sets have been ordered for the double bed. Still to purchase – 1 x white cupboard ($129.00); 1 x chair; 5 x prints; 1 x set double sheets; 3 x clock radios at an estimated cost of $500.00. Total spent to date is $3938.65. We hope to have photos to show you all as soon as possible.

Update: two indoor plants and a wardrobe and the project will be almost completed.

Literary Morning Tea

Wednesday 15 May at Murphy's.

A very well patronised event with plenty of chatter, laughter and a most delicious morning tea. Our guest speaker Cindy Davies was so interesting informing us of the basis of her first book "The Afghan Wife". It was sobering to see the freedom women had in the old Persia and the restrictions they have been forced to live under since the 1979 Iranian revolution.

Many in attendance purchased Cindy's book and will be looking forward to the sequel 'The Revolutionary's Cousin' due out later this year.

Thanks to everyone who attended and also for inviting so many friends. Beautiful raffle prizes were also enjoyed by the winners. Thanks to the 'Angels' group for the gorgeous quilt and cushions.

Check out the pictures (photo credit to Yvonne) on the following page.

Castagne Day at the Fraternity Club

The stall raised $679. Thanks everyone for your efforts.

Happy snaps from our Literary Morning Tea with guest author Cindy Davies. Shame we couldn't view all the sandwiches and cakes. We didn't eat them all, they just hadn't been set out at that point!
